The Staff Cafeteria, which continues to be significantly subsidized by the Museum to keep prices as low as possible for staff and volunteers, remains one of the most economical dining options in the neighborhood.

As we know, however, the cost of food, labor and services does rise every year, requiring modest annual increases.

Beginning July 1, prices will rise about 3-5% for most items in the staff cafeteria.